Musical Setting by J. Vickery

Come! Come! Bless the Lord!
All you servants of the Lord.
Come, come! Bless the Lord!
All you servants of the Lord.

Who stand by night in the house of the Lord,
Who stand by night in the house of the Lord,
Who stand by night in the house of the Lord,
Come! Bless the Lord!

Come! Come! Bless the Lord!
All you servants of the Lord.
Come, come! Bless the Lord!
All you servants of the Lord.

Lift up your hands to the holy place,
Lift up your hands to the holy place,
Lift up your hands to the holy place,
Come! Bless the Lord!

May the Lord bless you from Zion,
The Maker of heaven and earth.
May the Lord bless you from Zion,
The Maker of heaven and earth.
(Repeat!)

Come! Come! Bless the Lord!
All you servants of the Lord.
Come, come! Bless the Lord!
All you servants of the- All you servants of the-
All you servants of the Lord!

* How did the composer use repetition in setting this Psalm? She also made a few word changes from the ESV to help the text fit the melody. Can you find the changes and figure out what other translation of the Bible provided the changes? Fun fact: some Bible translations can be easier to set to music than others!
